The Act of the General Synod, 1872, chapter V., which altered the former connexion between St. Patrick's Cathedral and the Diocese of Dublin, entrusted to the Cathedral Board the general management and financial arrangements of the Cathedral, together with the appointment and payment of the choirmen and lay officers—excepting the Verger.

The Board consists of the Dean, the Precentor, the Dean's Vicar, and the Succentor, together with four other members elected in every third year by the Dean and Chapter out of their own number, and eight laymen elected in like manner at the same time by the Synodsmen and Registered Vestrymen of the Cathedral.

The funds at the disposal of the Cathedral Board consist of—

I. The ANNUAL INCOME from ordinary sources applicable to current expenses.

II. The INTEREST ON THE CAPITAL OF THE STIPEND FUND—designed to provide for the permanent maintenance of the Cathedral after the loss of the services of the present annuitants—Clergy, Vicars-Choral, and Choirmen—whose average age is now 57.

III. The INTEREST ON THE BALANCES LEFT BY THE COMPOSITIONS of the Clergy of the Cathedral.

I.—THE ANNUAL INCOME.

This is derived from—

1. Annual Subscriptions and Collections.
2. Offertory and Box Collections.
3. Diocesan Contributions.

1. The Annual Subscriptions consist in great measure of contributions from persons wishing to be qualified for registration as Vestrymen by an annual subscription of £1 from an accustomed member of the congregation, or of £5 from any other adult member of the Church of Ireland. The Cathedral Board have exerted themselves to increase the number of such subscribers, but they have barely succeeded in filling up the gaps caused by the removal of old supporters. The amount received annually under this head has been as follows :—

1873,	. . . .	£422	3	0
1874,	. . . .	359	6	0
1875,	. . . .	306	13	0
1876,	. . . .	310	10	2
1877,	. . . .	346	0	2

These figures include some small contributions collected by the cards of a few friends of the Cathedral.

2. The Offertory and Box Collections form the most important source of income. They have varied much from year to year, producing on an average £690 per annum, in addition to the special collections made for pious and charitable purposes outside the Cathedral. When the average amount of the Sunday Offertory is considered in connexion with the numbers who attend the services, it appears that nearly half the worshippers, especially at the Sunday afternoon services, leave the Church without contributing anything at all. Much difficulty is found by the collectors in bringing the Offertory plates within the reach of all at crowded festival services, but boxes are placed in different parts of the Cathedral, and one is held at the door. It is only reasonable that those who wish to avail themselves of the Cathedral services should take some trouble to contribute to the necessary cost. The amount of the Offertory collections during the last five years has been :—

Year.	For the Cathedral Funds.			For External Objects.			Total.
	£	s.	d.	£	s.	d.	£	s.	d.
1873, . .	647	2	7	167	3	1	814	5	8
1874, . .	629	4	5	380	13	0	1009	17	5
1875, . .	688	11	11	273	0	9	961	12	8
1876, . .	695	8	7	226	7	11	921	16	6
1877, . .	719	4	3	265	12	10	985	7	1

3. Diocesan Contributions.—When the Cathedral was made a National Institution, and a right was given to each united diocese in turn to elect a Canon to a vacant stall, it was felt that every diocese in Ireland became interested in the maintenance of the Cathedral; and the several dioceses, as their turn for election came round (and some of them before that time), and as the state of their diocesan funds permitted, have contributed to the annual income. The amount derived from this source has been—

	£	s.	d.
In 1873, . . . .	Nil.
„ 1874, . . . .	100	0	0
„ 1875, . . . .	170	13	4
„ 1876, . . . .	280	13	10
„ 1877, . . . .	500	11	8

In some cases a stipend has also been provided by the dioceses for their representative Canons, in consideration of the expense which residential duty involves. The following return shows the amount of annual contribution undertaken by the several dioceses named—(1) for the maintenance of the Cathedral, and (2) for the stipends of their Canons.

(c) Whenever Diocesan Funds permit. Paid in 1877.

(d) The Interest on an Accumulative Fund, which yielded in 1876, £23, and in 1877, £59 11s. 8d.

The turns for the two united dioceses of Kilmore, Elphin, and Ardagh, and Limerick, Ardfert, and Aghadoc, to elect to the Cathedral, have not yet come round.

The Annual Income is also entitled to a fee of £1 upon the installation of each newly appointed Canon.

The ANNUAL CURRENT EXPENSES include :—

(1). STIPENDS for CLERICAL VICARS and MINOR CANONS (as they may be appointed), and of Choirmen—a charge which will continually increase as vacancies occur in the ranks of annuitants.

(2). SALARIES for the CHORISTERS and the cost of their GRAMMAR SCHOOL and MUSICAL EDUCATION.

(3). SALARIES for the CATHEDRAL OFFICERS, most of whom compounded their annuities, leaving balances in the capital of the Stipend Fund, and receiving salaries for the continued discharge of their duties.

(4). REPAIRS of the fabric, HEATING and LIGHT.

(5). The various MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES of the Cathedral.

The amount of these expenses under these several heads has been for the last five years as follows :—

	1873.	1874.	1875.	1876.	1877.

COMPARISON OF ANNUAL INCOME WITH CURRENT EXPENSES.

If all who make use of the Cathedral were regular contributors to the funds, the Annual Income would provide a considerable addition to the capital of the Stipend Fund after all the current expenses had been met; but in each succeeding year since the system was brought into working order it has been necessary to draw upon the revenue of the Stipend Fund to meet the deficiency of the Annual Income. The deficiency on this account, in 1875, amounted to £555 13s. 10d., and in 1876, to £384 7s. 0d.

The statement for 1877 is as follows:—

II.—THE STIPEND FUND.

This Fund, on which the permanent maintenance of the Cathedral must mainly depend, is derived from—

(a). The balances left by the Cathedral officers on their compounding.

(b). Donations and Bequests received since the disestablishment of the Church of Ireland; and notably of £3000 from Sir Arthur E. Guinness, Bart., M.P.; £2500 from Edward Cecil Guinness, Esq., D.L., and of £400 from Very Rev. The Dean of St. Patrick's.

(c). The accumulation of the interest on this Fund and on the Clerical Composition Balances, after the deficits on the balance of Annual Income and Current Expenses have been met.

The amount of the Stipend Fund on the 31st December in each of the following years was as follows:—

1873,	. . .	£16,070	7	0
1874,	. . .	16,736	1	3

III.—CLERICAL COMPOSITION BALANCES.

This Fund consists of the balances left on compounding out of the Commutation capital of the late Precentor—The Most Rev. Lord Plunket, D. D.; the late Chancellor—the Rev. E. W. Whately; and the late Rev. Charles E. Wright, B. D., who was a clerical Vicar and Preacher. The capital, which amounts to £6697 12s. 4d., is still subject to the claims of the commuting clergy throughout Ireland, and cannot be drawn from the hands of the Representative Body. The interest, amounting to £271 19s. 0d., is placed at the disposal of the Cathedral Board for Cathedral sustentation purposes, and has generally been added to the capital of the Stipend Fund. The annuities extinguished by composition amounted to £542 6s. 2d.

* The great reduction of the Stipend Fund in 1876 arose out of the transfer to the Cathedral of an annuity, on account of which a sum of £2326 10s. 5d. was paid out of this Fund, and a sum of £2525 11s. 5d. was added to the Cathedral Commutation capital (vide p. 13).

DEANERY ENDOWMENT FUND.

In April 1874, the General Synod authorised the Representative Body to allocate the interest on a sum of £5000—being a part of the unappropriated balance of the Private Endowment Fund—towards the endowment of the Deanery of St. Patrick's, provided that within a year a like sum should be raised for this purpose. This condition was subsequently modified into the expression of a hope that every effort should be made to secure an adequate income for future Deans. The Fund, as it now stands, consists of the contributions received since the account was opened, together with the accumulation of interest thereon, and on the £5000 during the same period. The progress of the Fund may be traced as follows :—

Credited in	Contributions.	Interest.	Total.
	£ s. d.	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
1874, . . . . .	1109 10 0	207 14 6	1317 4 6
1875, . . . . .	879 14 0	281 16 2	1161 10 2
1876, . . . . .	48 13 2	299 16 3	348 9 5
1877, . . . . .	24 6 0	313 9 8	337 15 8
Total, . .	£2062 3 2	£1102 16 7	£3164 19 9

COMMUTATION CAPITAL.

The commutation capital connected with the Cathedral consists of what now remains of the commutation money of such of the Clergy, Vicars-Choral, and Members of the Choir as were awarded life annuities under the Irish Church Act. The sum originally received by the Representative Body amounted to £65,173 9s. 5d., chargeable with annuities amounting to £5165 11s. 8d.; but this has been greatly reduced (1) by composition, £2910 19s. 3d. having been paid to compounders, and £6697 12s. 4d. transferred to Clerical Composition Balances Fund (vide p. 11); (2) by advances to the annuitants on terms mutually advantageous to them and to the Cathedral, rendering this capital more secure—advances amounting to £10,700, having extinguished annuities amounting to £846 3s. 1d.; and (3) by the payment of the annuities; for while the interest to the 31st Dec., 1876, amounted to £8001 9s. 3d., the annuities paid during the same period amounted to £17,467 11s. 10d. The annuities chargeable have, in addition, been reduced to the extent of £261 3s. 3d. by the deaths of annuitants, viz. :—

Ven. C. Wolseley, Archdeacon of Glandelagh ;

Dr. Francis Robinson, Lay Vicar-Choral ;

Mr. William Topham, Choirman ;

so that the balance on the 31st December, 1876, was £37,924 6s. 8d., and the annuities then payable amounted to £3637 19s. 2d.

The following Table exhibits the above-mentioned transactions, and shows the effect of the year 1877 upon the commutation capital and the annuities chargeable thereon :—

GUINNESS CHOIR IMPROVEMENT SCHEME.

Early in 1876 Sir Arthur E. Guinness, Bart., M. P., and Edward Cecil Guinness, Esq., D. L., informed the Cathedral Board of their intention to contribute a sum of £500 per annum, to be expended in such a manner as to be generally beneficial to the Cathedral without relieving the Members of the Church of Ireland of the duty of maintaining their National Cathedral in the ordinary way. At the request and with the assistance of the generous donors, a scheme was drawn up with a view to the increased development of a School of Sacred Music in connexion with the Cathedral, and chiefly by means of the CHORISTERS' SCHOOL and the AMATEUR CHOIR. The improvements provided for included the following :—

1. Removal of the Grammar School to better premises.
2. Accommodation for boarding Choristers and Probationers.
3. Extra Choristerships, at increased salaries.
4. An Exhibition in Trinity College, connected with the Grammar School.
5. Better Instruction in Singing for Choristers and Amateur Choir.
6. Free Instruction in Piano and Organ for six boys.
7. Appointment of three Choral Exhibitioners and three Choral Assistants, from the Amateur Choir, to receive special instruction in Singing, and to assist in the Choir on certain specified occasions.
8. Appointment of extra Choirmen—one Tenor and one Bass.
9. Establishment of a Weekly Rehearsal.

A Sub-Committee was appointed to carry into effect this scheme, and their efforts have already been attended with great success, as is evidenced by the great improvement during the past year in all the services of the Cathedral, but especially in those of Sunday morning and Saturday afternoon. This is only an earnest of what may be expected from the continuous operation of the scheme, by which so great advantages are made available for the Choristers and the Members of the Amateur Choir.

It is to be understood that the aid thus given to the Cathedral is limited to the objects above specified, which are not included in the ordinary work of the Cathedral, for the support of which the Board must, as usual, depend upon the voluntary contribution of the Members of the Church of Ireland.

In order to enable the public to compare the financial position of the Cathedral at the beginning of the year 1877 with its position at the end of the same year, it is necessary to set the amount of the savings upon the current account aided by the Stipend Fund, and upon the Deanery Endowment Fund, against the amount to which the Commutation Capital has been diminished by the excess of annuities over interest. The following statement of the income and expenditure shows the effect of the year upon the Cathedral in all these departments :—
